

Journal Entry#8- The Great Debaters

1. This film is based on a true story about the first African American Debate Team to debate at Harvard University, why do you think this was true?
2. Describe at least TWO central conflicts so evident for the people within this true story....
3. Identify & describe in detail TWO specific central theme(s) evident within this film version of a true story...
4. Pick two central “characters” (People depicted in this film) & describe in detail how & why their lives arguably made a difference in the world...
5. Describe in detail TWO specific examples of potential symbolism found within this true story- how & why are they important not only to those people & their lives but also perhaps to us?